

SHOOTS GIRL IN CROWDED CAR AND WOUNDS HIMSELF

Policeman Boarded Trolley to Kill His Victim and Succeeded.

OGNCORD, N. H., Sept. 25.—Whitney D. Barrett, a policeman, entered a crowded electric car at Penacook today, fatally shot Miss Julia Chadwick, who was sitting among the passengers, and then turned the revolver on himself.

Miss Chadwick died at a hospital soon after the shooting, and it is believed that Barrett also will die.

Barrett is the oldest officer in point of service on the local force. He is a married man fifty years old.

Miss Chadwick was an employee of the local telephone exchange, about thirty years old and the daughter of John Chadwick, a prominent citizen of Penacook.

TWO MEN KNOCKED FROM TROLLEY CAR.

Women Passengers Bind Their Wounds with Handkerchiefs While Waiting for Ambulance.

Thomas Damon of Two Hundred and Twenty-second street and William Egan of Two Hundred and Twenty-second street and White Plains road, were struck by a trolley pole while riding on the trolley car on Webster avenue car for Mount Vernon today and knocked from the car unconscious and bleeding.

There was great excitement on the car, women screaming hysterically and children crying. Policeman Farrell of the East Eighty-eighth street station was a passenger. He telephoned to Fordham hospital and Dr. Mitchell responded in an ambulance.

Meanwhile, the car having come to a stop, some of the women gave first aid to the injured, bathing the cut heads with cold water and stopping the flow of blood with their handkerchiefs.

Dr. Mitchell revived the men, dressed their wounds, which were not serious and removed them to Fordham hospital.

COURT TRIED TO BAR WOMAN ON LITTER

Justice Gummere, Who Once Held Boy's Life Cheap, Objected.

The sight of a plaintiff in a damage suit against a railroad corporation being borne into court on a litter, accompanied by a trained nurse and two hospital attendants, proved very annoying to Chief Justice Gummere, of the New Jersey Supreme Court, at Newark.

Justice Gummere will be remembered as the jurist who said, in trying a father's suit for damages against a railroad for the death of his son, that a boy's life was not worth a dollar.

Miss Julia A. Eddy, of Newark, who is suing the North Jersey Street Railway Company for $10,000 damages, was the invalid plaintiff.

"There doesn't seem to be any need for this theatrical display in this matter," said Justice Gummere with a frown as the stretcher was borne into the courtroom.

Miss Eddy's attorney declared that if his client didn't come into court on a stretcher she couldn't come at all. Miss Eddy was allowed to give her testimony as she lay stretched at full length. She said she was alighting when the conductor started the car before she had stepped from the platform. She was thrown violently and sustained permanent spinal injuries. She has been attended by many prominent physicians of Newark, all of whom will testify that her injuries are permanent.

The company's defense is that she was responsible for the accident.

STAGE COUPLE MARRIED.

Daisy Fugate, of "Princess Begonia," Bride of Joseph Flanagan.

(Special to The Evening World.) SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Sept. 25.—Miss Rebecca Clapp Fugate, a soprano of the Fugate Edwards "Princess Begonia" Company, known on the stage as Daisy Fugate, and Joseph Flanagan, the stage director of the company, were married by City Clerk E. A. Newell here last evening.

Both bride and bridegroom live in New York, and their acquaintance began less than a month ago. Miss Fugate was with the "Red Feather" Company, which Mr. Flanagan was engaged to stage. When Mr. Flanagan began his work with the Fugate Edwards, Miss Fugate also joined the company.

FINNISH PLOTTERS MENACE AMERICANS

Plan to Blow Up Bank in Which American Legation Is Located.

STOCKHOLM, Sept. 25.—The American Legation, although not the direct object of the planned outrage, had a narrow escape from being blown up by the Finnish refugee revolutionists who were arrested here Sept. 22, and was only saved by the timely arrest of the conspirators.

It appears that the latter intended to rob the State Bank, occupying part of the same premises as the legation. The Finns had planned first to empty the vaults of the bank and then raise the building with dynamite, fifty pounds of which was found in their possession. The men arrested declare the attempt will be repeated by others.

Among the Finns arrested at Stockholm Sept. 22 was one who described himself as Chief of the Finnish Red Guard, the revolutionary organization which played a prominent part in the disturbances at Helsingfors following the mutiny of part of the garrison of Sveaborg Fortress.

The leader of the refugees lived for some time in New York. He admitted that, in compliance with the orders of the Revolutionary Guard, the refugees had planned a big bank robbery at Stockholm.

WAIT UNTIL THURSDAY Compelled to Sell Their Elegant Fall & Winter Stock 243 Broadway, At About Half Usual Prices.

This Sale Starts Thursday Morning, Sept. 27, at 9 A. M.

WE moved from the corner to the middle of the block, 243 Broadway, intending to remodel the big building to suit our needs. We contracted for the improvements to build a big plant for such an enormous stock as we carry; we bought largely from the best manufacturers to do a big business and then we found that existing leases on the upper floors prevented the builders from proceeding with their work—we have got to wait until next May to get the entire building.

We have got to sell; we thought we would get the use of the entire building and we can't only get the store at present—must therefore utilize the space at our command. Meanwhile the cost of clothing to manufacture is increasing daily, labor and material are going up and though we bought early, plenty and cheap, the goods are coming in so fast that we must sell at 1/2 regular prices to avoid being swamped by the immense quantities of clothing which we bought and ordered shipped for the Fall trade.

Now we find that the next best thing we can do is to sell our immense stock and do the best we can with the space at our command. This cannot be accomplished in the ordinary way and we are compelled to sell at about one-half regular prices.

Table of various goods on sale including Boys' Suits, Men's Business Suits, Men's Top Coats, Men's Winter Overcoats, and Men's Trousers.

$28,000 Worth of Trousers, Cravenettes, Tuxedo Suits, Fancy Vests and Prince Albert Suits AT ABOUT 45 CENTS ON THE DOLLAR.

To the thousands of customers who have always bought from us and reside in Brooklyn, Long Island, Staten Island and the Bronx, we will refund railroad fare, also to all purchasers living within 50 miles of New York City.
